

We want to know who you are!

God made you for a particular purpose, and He gave you all of the tools you need to succeed in that purpose. Two of the tools are your intellect and your personality. Today we want to name your personality so that we can guide you in discovering what your purpose here on Earth is. Your personality helps us to know how you like to work and who you like to work with. Knowing these things helps us to identify ministry: the place where your purpose becomes clear.

Don't be nervous—the images on the next page come from Mrs. Acevedo's personality assessment, and you'll find out your catechist's personality, too, in class. Ask your sponsor, godparents, or parents to take this if you'd like – it'll be interesting to find out!

The Typewriter Personality Test

1. Click on the link to take the assessment. <https://www.truity.com/test/type-finder-personality-test-new>
2. You'll see a list of statements; decide if the statement describes you or not.
 - a. Click on or near "accurate" if the statement describes you, or click on or near "inaccurate" if it doesn't. "Neutral" means you really don't care either way.
 - b. Try to force yourself to pick "accurate" or "inaccurate" while avoiding the 3 options between them to get a better description in your results.
 - c. At the end of the list, click on the "NEXT STEP" button.
3. Repeat this process for steps 1-5.
4. Step 6 is different: you will see five boxes between two statements. Read the two statements and click one of the boxes-- the closer your check is to a statement, the more you agree with it.
5. Step 7 is different: it is OPTIONAL and used for research purposes only. It will not influence the results we are looking for. Feel free to skip it.
6. Click on the "GET MY RESULTS" button.
7. You'll see a list of colorful bars. Write the percentage number for each type:

Introverted (_____ %) or Extroverted (_____ %)

Sensing (_____ %) or Intuitive (_____ %)

Thinking (_____ %) or Feeling (_____ %)

Perceiving (_____ %) or Judging (_____ %)

- a. Highlight or circle the higher percentage for each colored bar. See the example on the next page.

You'll see a 4-letter code in the first visible paragraph. Write that code here: _____

- b. Bring this paper to your appointment or to class.
8. The paragraphs begin to fade out. If you click on the "Get MY FULL REPORT" button, you will need to pay with a credit card. This is NOT REQUIRED OR RECOMMENDED so just exit the page.

Your Personality Type Results

Congratulations! You have completed your personality assessment. Nice work!

Your free results will give you a quick but clear picture of how you scored. The graph below shows your scores on each of the four personality preferences. These four preferences combine to create your personality type, which you can read a bit more about below the graph.

About Your Type

As an ENFJ, you are driven by a deep sense of altruism and empathy for other people. You have an intuitive sense of the emotions of others, and often act as an emotional barometer for the people around you. You tend to personally experience the feelings of others, and feel compelled to act when you see people suffering. But your compassion is not reserved for the people close to you; at heart, you are a humanitarian, and you feel genuine concern for the ills of the entire human race.

You want close, supportive connections with others, and believe that cooperation is the best way to get things done. You like to be liked and are very sensitive to feedback, both positive and negative. You expect the best not just from yourself, but from others as well, and may find yourself disappointed when others are not as genuine in their intentions as you are. You work hard to maintain strong relationships, and strive to be a valuable member of your family and community.
